Community Guidelines — IIIT Platform

1. Membership Conduct

Members must be current IIIT students or verified alumni. Misrepresentation leads to removal.

2. Islamic Ethical Conduct

All interactions must align with Islamic values. Prohibited: profanity, harassment, immoral content, and conduct against Islamic ethics.

3. Academic & Professional Integrity

Share accurate information. Avoid plagiarism, cheating, and misinformation.

4. Respectful Interaction

Engage constructively. No hate speech, discrimination, defamation, or aggressive behavior.

5. Content Rules

Content must be lawful, ethical, and respectful. No illegal files, political propaganda, or unauthorized advertising.

6. Privacy Protection

Do not share others' private information without consent. Respect confidentiality.

7. Security & Safety

No spam, scams, viruses, or harmful links. Violations lead to suspension.

8. Reporting Misconduct

Report harmful activities confidentially to administrators.

9. Enforcement

Consequences include content removal, suspension, permanent ban, or referral to university authorities.

10. Updates

Guidelines may change. Continued use confirms acceptance.

Reference Frameworks:

- Harvard University Digital Community Guidelines

- International Islamic Fiqh Academy

- UNESCO Digital Citizenship Standards

- Saudi National Cybersecurity Authority

- EDUCAUSE University Conduct Policies